European Heritage Days 2020

«Cultural Heritage and Education: lifelong learning»

Friday 25-Sunday 27 September 2020

The Museum of Byzantine Culture, participating in the Pan-European institution of the European Heritage Days, which this year due to circumstances is online, will present on its website <https://www.mbp.gr> and on the social media pages <https://www.facebook.com/mbp.thess> and <https://www.facebook.com/EHDaysGR> the following actions:

the digital exhibition, entitled “Conquering the Pandemic”, which includes religious engravings and images from its collections depicting pandemics in Post-Byzantine iconography (in the context of the temporary exhibition “Two Collections Meet”) and was designed as part of this year’s celebration and the short film (duration: 9'59") entitled “Paper images and their secrets” which presents the process of the production of religious engravings (paper images).

On the weekend of the celebration (26 and 27 September 2020) the entrance to the Museum is free.
