

Jan Vanriet is a Belgian painter and writer, born in Antwerp in 1948. He showed at the São Paulo and Venice Biennials, and the Seoul Festival, and has exhibited internationally in art museums and reputed galleries. His paintings are in important collections, such as The British Museum London, Museum of Contemporary Art La Jolla, National Museum of Contemporary Arts Seoul, Museum of Art San Diego, McNay Museum San Antonio, The New Art Gallery Walsall, CORPO Toledo, Royal Museum of Fine Arts Antwerp, National Museum Gdansk, Phoebus Collection, etc. Distinguished authors such as György Konrád, Cees Nooteboom, Pierre Restany, Stefan Hertmans, Andrew Graham-Dixon, Adam Zagajewski and Edward Lucie-Smith have contributed to the numerous publications on Vanriet's work.