Press Release

The Museum of Byzantine Culture, for one more year, participates in the celebration of the European Days of Conservation by projecting its work in the field of the conservation of antiquities and works of art.

The action, titled "Healing cultural goods: a visit to the Museum's conservation laboratories", provides a guided tour through the laboratories of the Museum of Byzantine Culture with the help of the Museum's conservators and the acquaintance with the science of conservation.

On Tuesday 14 October 2025, 10:00 and 12:00, two guided tours will take place in groups of 15 persons.

Registration is required by calling 2313306422, from October 1 to 10, 9:00 to 11:00. First come, first served. Maximum number of people: 30 people (two groups of 15 people).

The entrance to the Museum will be free for the participants.
