Press Release

The Museum of Byzantine Culture is participating for thirteenth year in the architectural event OPEN HOUSE Thessaloniki.

The established architectural event returns to Thessaloniki on Saturday 22 and Sunday 23 November, offering the public the opportunity to tour more than 70 buildings and take part in numerous parallel events starting a week earlier. The theme of OPEN HOUSE Thessaloniki 2025, which will be highlighted through the main program and accompanying activities, is “Future Heritage – today’s architecture, tomorrow’s legacy.”

Within this framework, the Museum of Byzantine Culture invites the public to enjoy free guided tours of the White Tower conducted by the event’s volunteers on Saturday 22 and Sunday 23 November, from 12:00 to 18:00, and to learn about the monument’s historical and architectural significance.
